

GREEN CLASSIFIED ADS

WWW.SONOMAX.ORG

CONSTRUCTION

CONTAINERS

DURABLE GOODS

ELECTRONICS

PALLETS

WHAT IS SONOMAX.ORG

Your trash is another's treasure! SonoMax.org, Sonoma County Materials Exchange Program, is a free online resource operated by the Sonoma County Waste Management Agency helping local businesses find reuse and recycling opportunities for hard-to-recycle items, such as empty containers, construction left-overs and manufacturing by-products. The goal of the program is to give materials a second chance, thereby keeping them out of the landfill.

HOW TO USE SONOMAX.ORG

- 1 Go to WWW.SONOMAX.ORG
- 2 Browse listings or post an ad. It's free.
- 3 Manage your listings with the MySonoMax tab.

WHAT CAN I LIST

Anything you would otherwise discard can be listed as long as it is not a hazardous waste. Information provided in SonoMax.org is supplied by the listing party.

HOW SONOMAX.ORG HAS BENEFITTED BUSINESSES & THE COMMUNITY

Construction site job leftovers were given away by a local developer thereby saving on disposal costs.

Polystyrene sheets from a spa retailer were reused by a local landscape business as insulation for greenhouses.

Composted manure from horse boarding stables was used by gardeners.

IF IT CAN BE REUSED, POST IT ONLINE.

SONOMAX.ORG IS A FREE SERVICE TO HELP KEEP GOOD MATERIALS OUT OF THE TRASH.

Funding Provided by a Grant from the California Integrated Waste Management Board. Zero Waste—You Make it Happen!

SonoMax.org is a program of the Sonoma County Waste Management Agency.